

9th Annual Child Protection Forum

Thursday 17th February, Westminster Studio, London SW1P

Speakers include:

Peter Duxbury
Director of Children's Services,
Lincolnshire County Council

Jeanette Pugh
Director, Safeguarding Group,
Department for Education

Peter Davies
Chief Executive, CEOP

Dr Sheila Fish
Senior Research Analyst, SCIE

Dr Roger Morgan
Children's Rights Director for England

Sir Paul Ennals
Chief Executive, NCB

Supported by:

Child protection services were found to be inadequate in a third of the 29 councils inspected by Ofsted in 2010. An analysis of the challenges facing children's social care and an identification of the key elements of an 'excellent' service lends itself for capacity to improve.

In Matt Dunkley's (Vice-President, ADCS) words:
"it is now vital that a sector-owned improvement infrastructure is developed to complement the analysis of problems with the provision of solutions to these challenges."

Now in its 9th year, this annual forum will bring together representatives from local and central government, Local Safeguarding Children Boards, police, health, education and child protection organisations to discuss latest policy and guidance, share best practice and encourage effective multi-disciplinary working.
