Ipsos MORI
Social Research Institute

Who's Happy Now?

Ipsos MORI Social Research Institute Summer Event

3 June 2008, from 5.30pm • Central London

The fourth Ipsos MORI summer conference will examine what the British think of happiness and how we compare with other countries. We will look at who's happiest — and who's most miserable — and why. We will consider the role Government is currently playing in promoting citizens' happiness or well-being and what it should, and should not, be doing.

Our speakers include:

Ben Page
Chairman, Social Research Institute, Ipsos MORI.

Evan Davis
Presenter, Today Programme, BBC Radio 4.

Professor Paul Dolan
Tanaka Business School, Imperial College London.

Rt Hon Iain Duncan Smith MP
Member of Parliament for Chingford and Woodford Green, ex Leader of the Conservative Party and Chairman for Social Justice Policy Group.

The session will be interactive, with plenty of time for questions and debate.

This conference is free for Ipsos MORI clients and friends and will be followed by a drinks reception in the garden (weather permitting).

Registration is via our online booking form at: www.ipsos-mori.com/events/sri. You will receive confirmation details (including details of the venue) once you have booked your place.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Kind regards

Ben Page
Managing Director,
Ipsos MORI Public Affairs
and Chair of the Ipsos MORI
Social Research Institute

Bobby Duffy
Deputy Managing Director
Ipsos MORI
Social Research Institute

How to book

Please fill in the online booking form at:
www.ipsos-mori.com/events/sri

For more information please contact
Liz Thorpe-Tracey at: info@ipsos-mori.com

Ipsos MORI

79-81 Borough Road
London SE1 1FY

t +44 (0)20 7347 3000
f +44 (0)20 7347 3800
e info@ipsos-mori.com

www.ipsos-mori.com