Local Government Association

Shaping the Role of Regulatory Services

Councillor David Parsons

Chair, LGA Improvement Board

promoting better local government

LGA Improvement Board

Local Government Association

- Role of the Improvement Board
- How this fits in with Regulatory Services

Shaping the role of regulatory services

Local Government Association

- The importance of the better regulation agenda.
- The vital contribution council regulatory services can make to the local and national economy
- The importance of sharing and disseminating best practice in regulatory services
- The importance of partnership working

Better Regulation Agenda

Local Government Association

- Better Regulation agenda
- Keeping an eye on National perspective
- Embedding locally

Local & National Economy

Local Government Association

- Current Climate – Economic slowdown
- Complying with legislation
- Targeting resources

Best Practice & Partnerships

Local Government Association

- Sharing and disseminating best practice
- Learning from each other
- The Importance of partnership working.

Future challenges

Local Government Association

- Raising the profile
- Engaging members
- Feet in 2 camps
- Evidence base