Achieving the 2020 workforce vision – an update on progress

The Youth Workforce Reform Programme

Keith Brumfitt

Director of Strategy

Children's Workforce Development Council

creating a world-class workforce for children, young people and families

Areas I will cover:

> Why Youth Workforce reform?

> Vision for the Youth Workforce Programme

> Progress so far and future work

Why Youth Workforce Reform?

> Evidence Base

> Government Strategy

The Youth Workforce Reform Programme

> Vision

> Outcomes

> Scope

> CWDC's reform partners

creating a world-class workforce for children, young people and families

cwdc

Outcomes

> a rise in the level of skills and greater and more consistent quality of practice;

> a more consistent set of training and qualifications, suiting the integrated nature of delivery;

> a clearer entry and progression picture for existing and would-be workers;

> a stronger sense of professional identity;

> a rise in workforce status, morale and aspirations;

> a workforce better able to successfully deliver outcomes for young people.

Progress so far

- Leadership and management development programmes
- Third Sector capacity-building
- Common Platform of Skills & Competences
  - Skills Development Framework
  - Youth Professional Status
  - Graduate recruitment
  - Common apprenticeships, common foundation degree
- Grants to local areas
- Communication and evaluation

Grants to local areas

- LAs notified in December of grant to help local areas to take full advantage of and prepare for the programme
- Link to the Children's Workforce Tool
- Between £20-25k, dependent on youth population
- Workshops held: awaiting invoicing

For further information

> Youthworkforce@cwdcouncil.org.uk > www.cwdcouncil.org.uk/youth-workforce-reform

creating a world-class workforce for children, young people and families

cwdc