MAN Nutzfahrzeuge AG

BUS Division

The MAN Group

Engineering the Future

The bus division is is part of MAN Nutzfahrzeuge AG, a company belonging to the MAN AG Group, Munich. As a system provider with about 55,000 employees in the core businesses of commercial vehicles, diesel engines and turbo machinery MAN AG operates in 120 countries and generates an annual turnover of € 15,5 Bn and as a DAX-30 stock MAN is one of the Blue Chips on the stock exchange.

MAN concentrates on the fast-growing area of “Transport Related Engineering” and is one of the market leaders and most innovative groups in the truck, bus, diesel engine and turbo machinery sectors, as well as in industrial services.

The MAN Commercial Vehicle Group

Segments

Buses
11 %

Heavy trucks
51 %

Light and medium-sized vans and lorries
11 %

Components
5 %

MAN | TopUsed

Used vehicles
6 %

Customer service / services
16%

Bus division

The best of two worlds

The bus division combines the international bus activities of the MAN and NEOPLAN brands.

For decades MAN buses have stood for innovative engine and chassis concepts. The buses have proved and excelled themselves in tourist travel, intercity travel and town traffic.
They are the “buses for business”.

Since 1935 NEOPLAN has set new standards in comfort and safety, in the coach segment above all, and is seen as a leader in design – NEOPLAN, the VIP class in bus building.

MAN Truck & Bus UK Ltd

- An Investment in the Future for MAN Truck & Bus UK
- Promotion of the brand in the wider community
- Brand loyalty & employee retention (MAN Family)
- Well trained, well motivated,successful.
- Customer satisfaction through competency.

Thank you for your attention . . .

… and goodbye.