Why you must attend this event:

- Be ready for early years foundation stage changes in September 2012 – get an insider's briefing from Ofsted on how to become and remain outstanding during a time of rapid change
- Discover what's working – real life examples from 12 senior practitioners and early years experts
- Be fully prepared – understand the financial, operational and management challenges of the new inspection and policy regime
- Maximise learning and training value – watch the conference again online! All delegates receive post-event access to watch speaker presentations via the Policy Review TV service, AND can download all conference papers

Early years provision is going through dramatic review and change. Changes include a move towards payments by results, flexible working hours and greater parental involvement. Additionally, new health visitor and public health changes mark a major period of reform designed to help drive the new focus on being ready for school.

Attend this conference and you'll have a fantastic road-map for navigating the reforms and have an excellent blueprint for becoming and remaining outstanding.
