The Gathering Storm: World Development and the New Curriculum

Curricular Tools for a Planet in Crisis: Values, Community, Enlightenment

Going Global 2012

Global Problems: What Should Universities Do?

Brian U. Adler

Georgia Southwestern State University

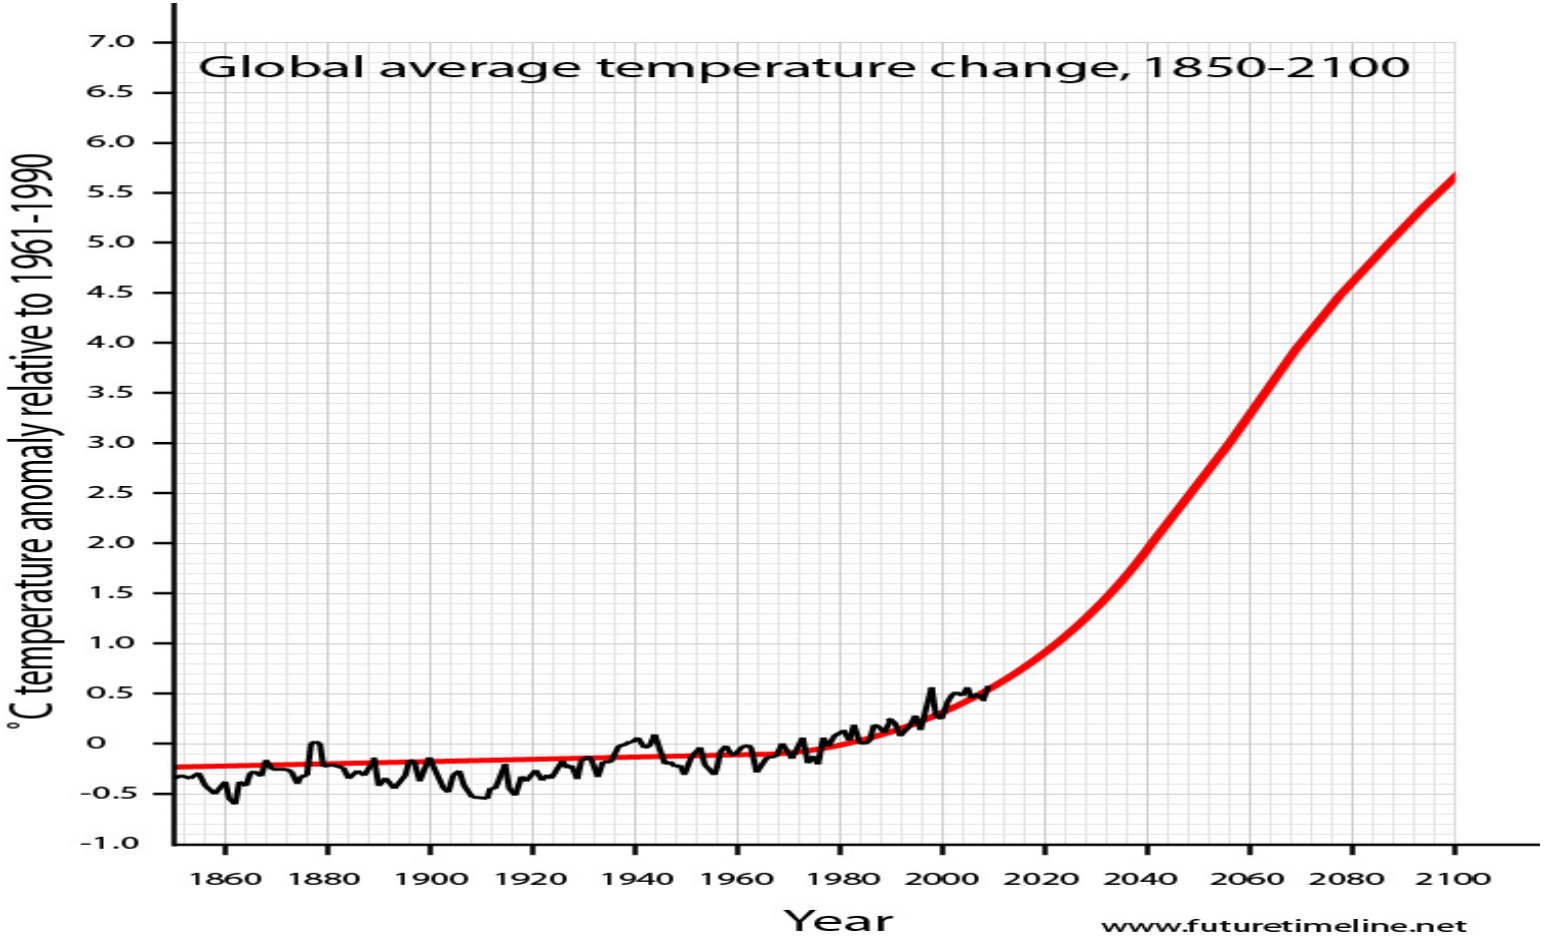
Americus, Georgia, USA

brian.adler@gsw.edu

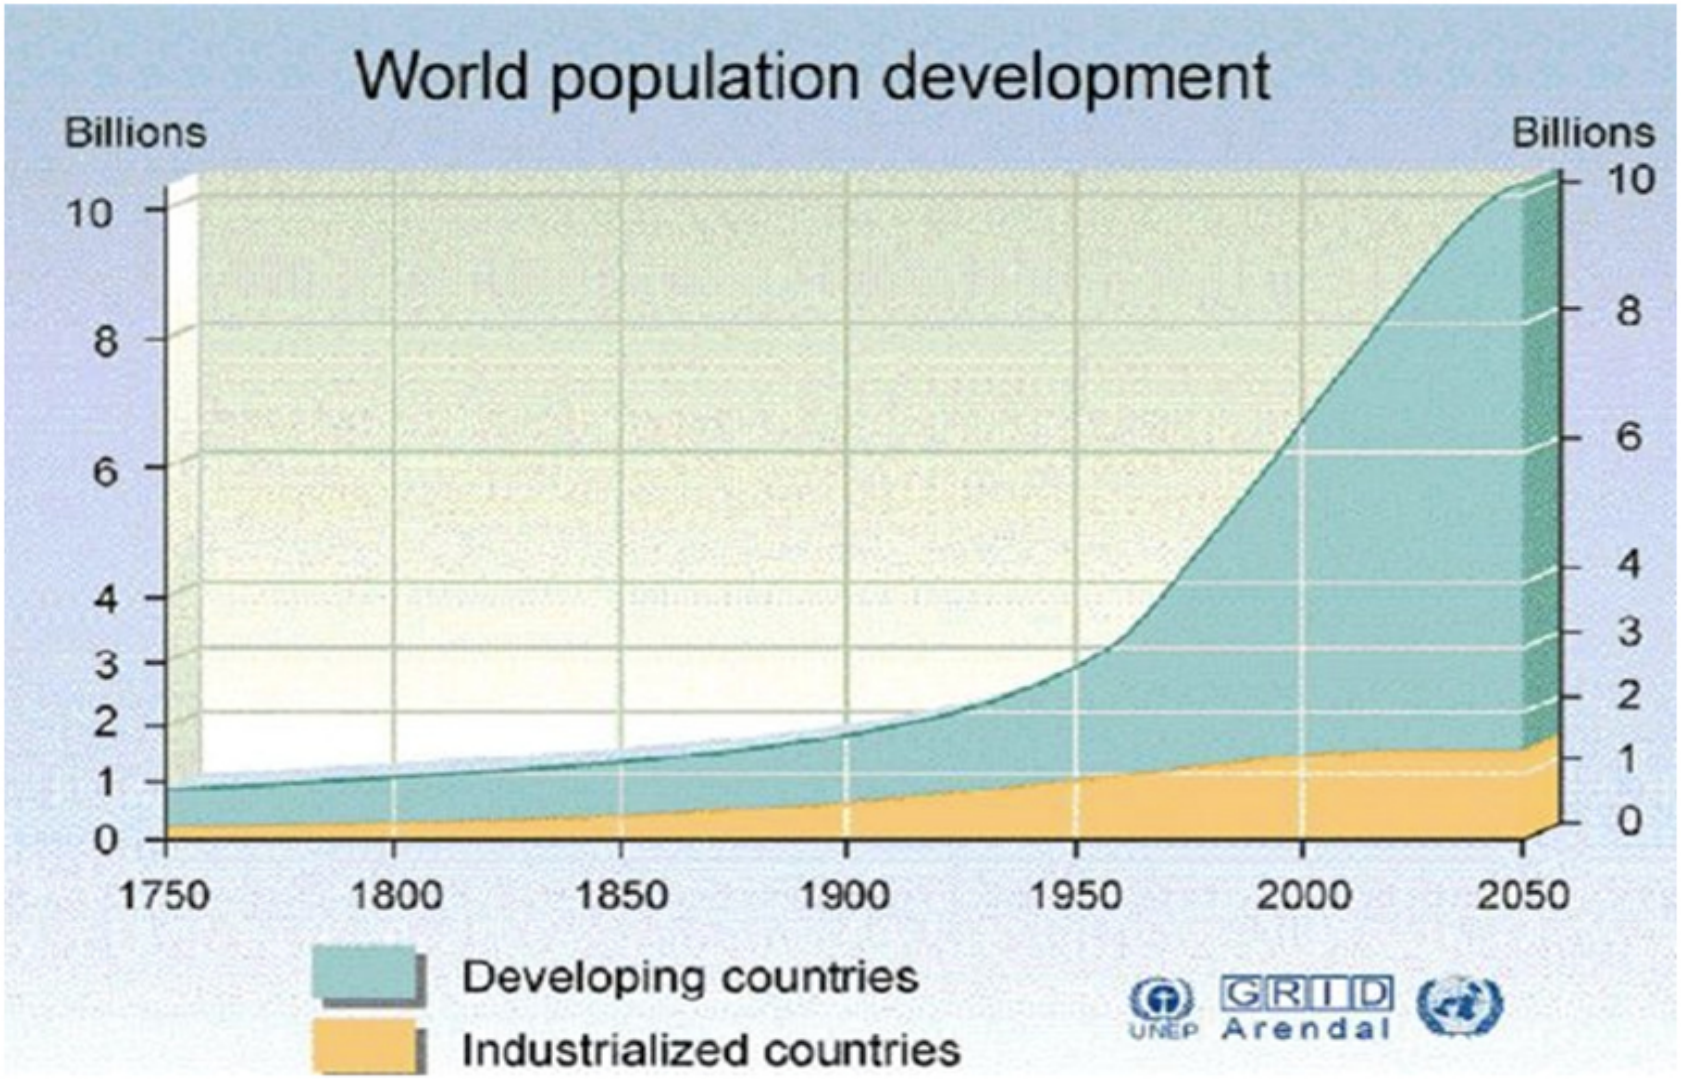
Guiding Components of the Curriculum

- Problem Based
- Case Studies
- Practical, Hands-On, Real-Life Application
- Conceptual
- Visionary
- Consistent within the Liberal Arts Tradition
- Multicultural

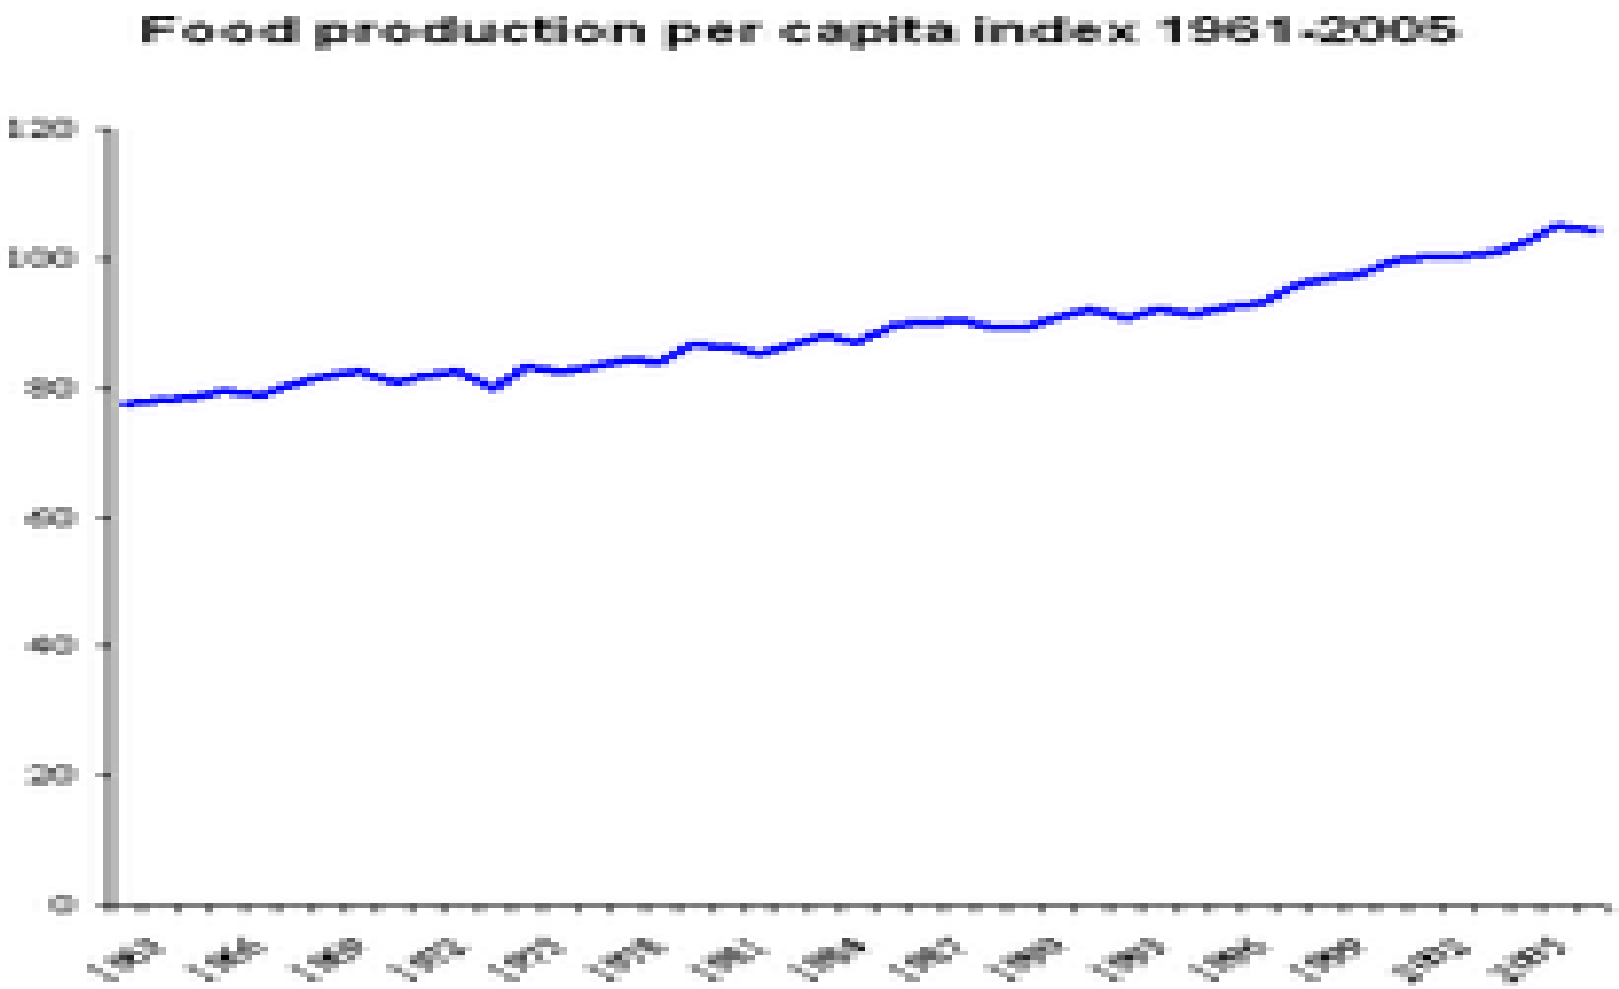
Global Warming



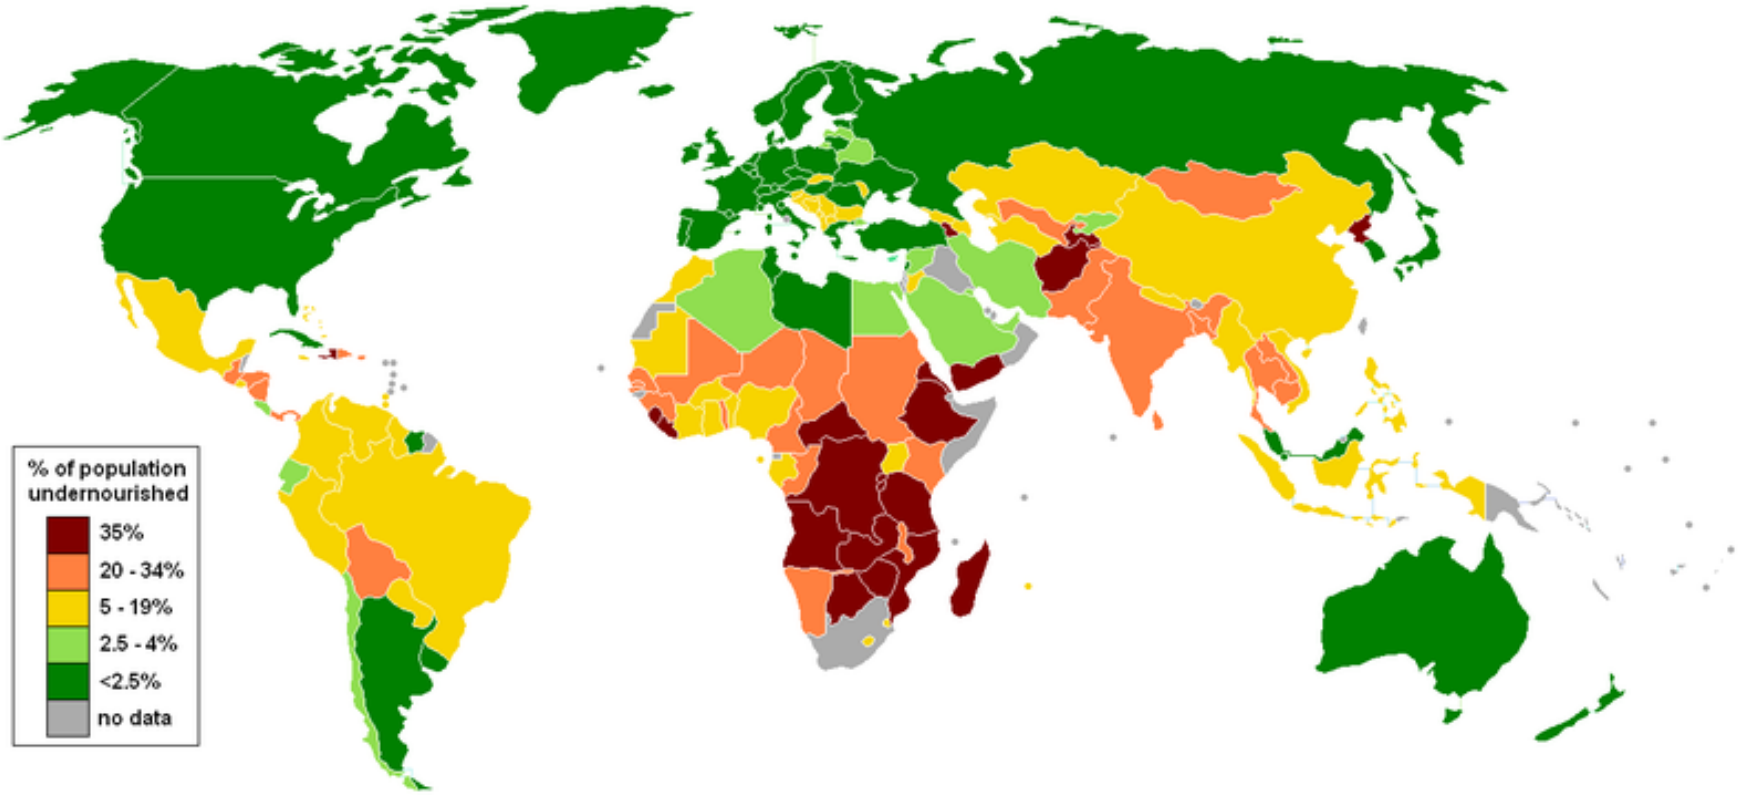
World Population Distribution



Food Production per capita



World Food Needs



Craft and History Studies at Westville Living History Museum

Studies in Caregiving at the RCI

Legal and Cultural Studies at the Griffin Bell Center

President Jimmy Carter National Historic Site Studies

Third World Studies