

ENGAGING WITH LEADERS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Leadership Development: a bridge to international partnerships?

Leadership Foundation
for Higher Education

Robin Middlehurst

- Context
- Building strategic relationships
- Leadership Development Models
- Outcomes & Benefits

- LF's international strategy:
 - Support UK HEIs' internationalisation
 - Support UK's international agenda with priority countries
 - Develop international activities with overseas' governments & universities
- Work in partnership

ENGAGING WITH LEADERS
IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Building Strategic Relationships

- British Council & UKTI
- American Council on Education
- AKEPT Malaysia
- LH Martin Institute Australia
- CEAIE & NAEA China
- HEC Pakistan
- UGC India
- SARUA in Southern Africa
- MoHESR Iraq – Central and KRG

ENGAGING WITH LEADERS
IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Countries

- Australia
- Afghanistan
- Bangladesh
- Canada
- China
- Egypt
- Europe
- Hong Kong
- India
- Iraq
- Malaysia
- Morocco
- Nigeria
- Pakistan
- Qatar
- Saudia Arabia
- South Africa
- Tunisia
- UAE
- USA

ENC

Leadership Development Models

- 1:1 Twinning (China, India)
- 2-way multi-link programmes (India)
- 2-way programmes at several sites (Pakistan, Iraq)
- International Dialogues (USA, Malaysia)
- Themed study visits (Canada, Denmark, Dubai)
- Bespoke overseas' programmes (Saudi Arabia)
- International Leadership Development Programme (Hong Kong)
- Joint research + programmes (Australia)

- Cost-effective & targeted introductions to new markets
- Institutional relationships initiated/extended for teaching & research
- Enhancement of civic & business links
- Cultural + leadership, governance insights
- Reputational advantage for UK in LD
- Improved UK competitive position

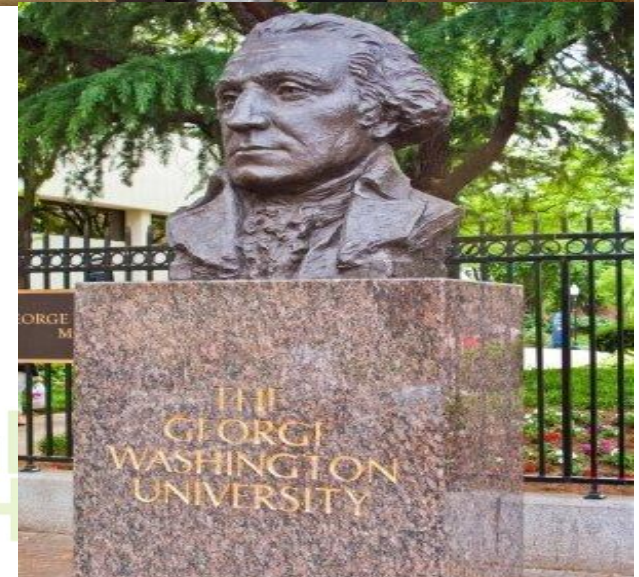

ENGAGING WITH LEADERS
IN HIGHER EDUCATION

- LD essential element in reform of HE
- By end of 2009-10, ca. 30% of VCs & 30% of senior staff of HEC had engaged in LD
- Demand for participation is high
- Matched funding from HEC
- New plans, new skills, in-country network & learning community
- PhD students in UK
- Strengthening links for UK HEIs

ENGAGING WITH LEADERS
IN HIGHER EDUCATION

- Dual perspectives on future HE scenarios
- HEI visits
- Insights into topical issues for UK
 - Student & alumni focus
 - Fund-raising
 - Political lobbying
 - Private sector
- New networks & partnerships for research, exchange

- Key Associates
- Win-win for UK agencies
- Host HEIs & host cities
- Participants
- Programme & project leaders
- New networks
- Leveraging resources
- Different forms of engagement & learning

ENGAGING WITH LEADERS
IN HIGHER EDUCATION