1'Financial support expenditure' includes access agreement spend on bursaries, fee waivers and other institutional discounts

2'Outreach and retention expenditure' includes access agreement spend on outreach plus additional expenditure on retention and employability which was introduced in access agreements for 2012-13

3'Outreach only expenditure' includes access agreement spend committed to outreach activities

Evaluation

---

Increasingly important to access agreement approval and monitoring because:

- provides context
- demonstrates effort and illustrates performance of access measures
- (where successful) demonstrates progress underneath headline targets
- informs decisions on where to invest resources.

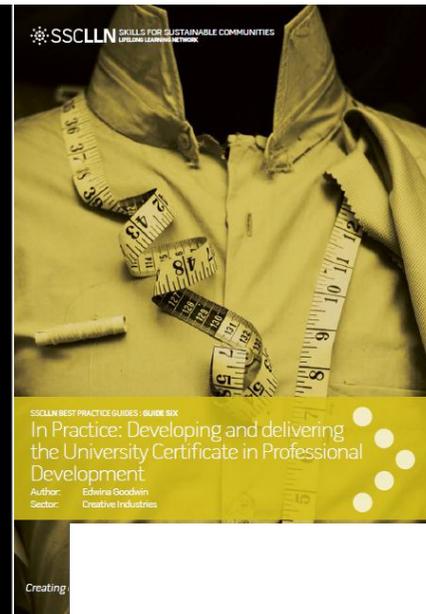

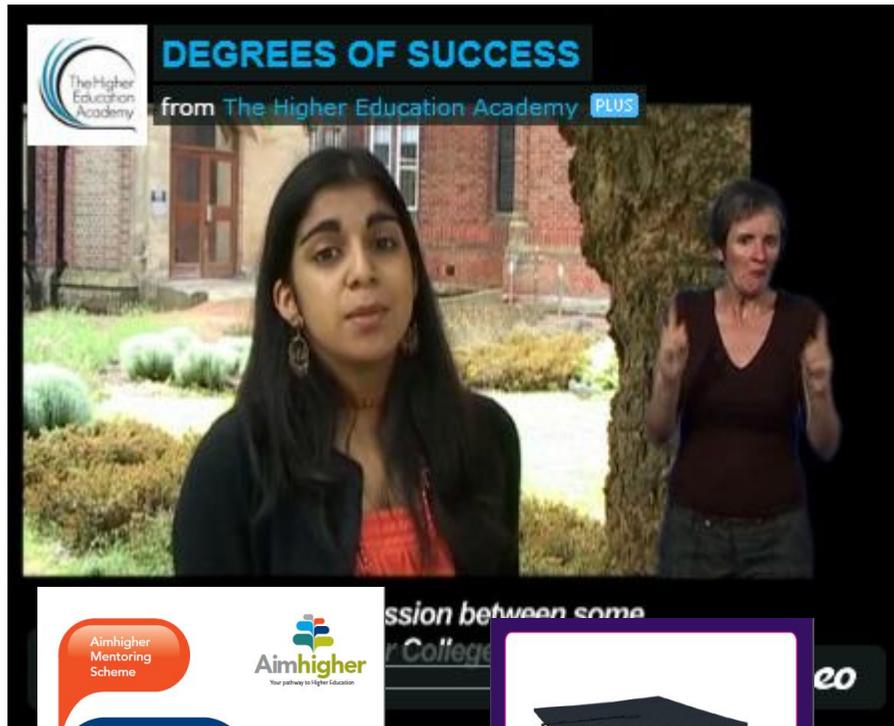

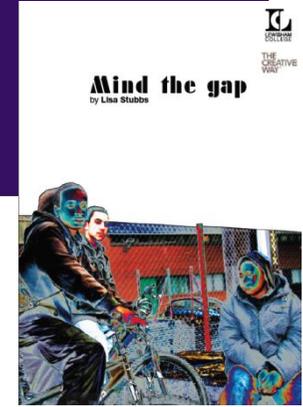

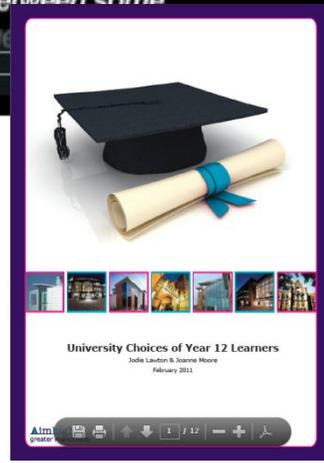

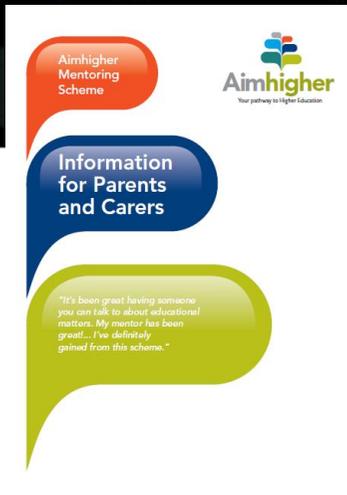

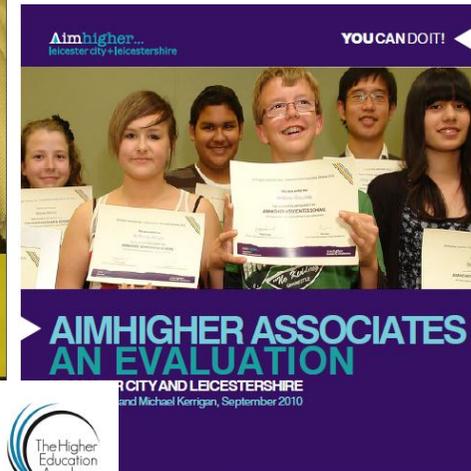

“I hope, over time, OFFA will have more and more evidence about what works and what does not, and can draw on that evidence when advising universities.”

Rt Hon David Willetts MP, Minister for Universities and Science, Select Committee evidence, June 2012

Bursaries/fee waivers

---

- Lack of hard evidence to date about which is most effective at improving access and student success
- Changing context of higher fees
